Reading and Spelling

ENGLISH

MADE EASIE.

WHEREIN

All the Words of our Englisſh BIBLE are ſet down in an Alphabetical order and divided into their diſtinct Syllabls.

Together with

The Grounds of the Engliſh Tongue laid in Verſe, wherein are touch't many Moral Precepts.

By the Help whereof, with Gods bleſſing, Little Children, and others of ordinary Capacities, may in few Months be enabled exactly to Read and Spell the whole Bible.

TOLLE, LEGE.

By Tho. Lye, Philanglus.

LONDON, Printed by A. Maxwell for The Partners, and are to be ſold at his Shops at the Bible and three Crowns in Cheapſide near Mercers-

TO THE READER.

Courteous Reader,

THAT Parents generally throughout this whole Kingdom, are at constant, vast expences, for the ingenious education of their dear Children, is a Truth written with a Sun-beam.

That, to this day, our Crop answers not our Seed; That our Childrens Attainments come not up to our just, and Rational Expectations, is so stabbing an Experience, that it ought not to be mentioned without a Flood of Tears. What Omers of Seed, both as to Cost, and Time, and Pains, are daily sown, and yet what poor Ephahs of Real Advantage reaped? Of those many Thousands in our English Israel (a fourth part of whose age is commonly given up to the Fescue, and Ferula) how few, how very few are there in comparison, that, after all, can exactly Read, Spell, and Write True English, or indeed (infandum dolorem) but distinctly Read a Chapter?

For such an Epidemical Disease as this, Is there no Balm in our English Gilead? No Physician there? Yes, without doubt, there have been and are, more than many; and those as eminent for the cure of a weak Understanding, and stammering Tongue, as ever those great Secretaries of Nature, Galen, Hippocrates, Paracelsus, were for the curing of any the Diseases of the Body. What should hinder then, but that the health of the Sons and Daughters of our People should be obtained? I know nothing that can, except it be our wretched neglect, or careless use of Those many excellent Means already prescribed.

However, because Variety is pleasing, and New Dishes are taking, at least with squeamish stomacks, I have here presented thee with something that thou thy self wilt say is New. Probably thou hast heard of an Iliad in a Nutshell, or seen the Ten Commandments cut on a small Penny. But didst ever yet behold the whole Bible, every word therein, distinctly set before thine eye in a few pages? If thou doubt the truth of this intimation, be pleased but to give thy self the trouble of taking any Verse whatsoever in the whole Bible, and see whether every particular word in that Verse be not readily found in the Alphabetical Table. My judgment much fails me, if upon such an Experiment, thou wilt not incline to be very much of my Opinion.

But who should make use of this Book? and how? I answer,

First, Persons of riper Age; and those

Such, as, from the very breast, have been ever

ever learning, and never yet come to the knowledg of the true ſpelling of one Syllabl. Read, they hope, they can; but ſpell they cannot; and therefore to write either to Child, Friend, or Servant, they are aſhamed.

To theſe I give this advice.

1. Let them read over the whole Alphabetical Table once a month. By this means, the whole Bible will ſoon become, as to the word-part, more familiar to them, and they more ready to find any word they ſearch for.

2. When any word occurrs, that gravels them ſo, that they cannot ſpell it; Let them obſerve carefully, with what Letter, or with what two Letters it begins, and then look for thoſe two Letters in the head of the page, and under thoſe two Letters they will ſpeedily find the word, they deſire, if it be in the Bible.

2. Younger Ones; and that, as ſoon as they have learnt diſtinctly to know, and read their Letters.

Let no man object the Difficulty of this Book, and that it is ſo maſſy a weight, as will not only preſs, but cruſh ſuch tender ſhoulders. For do but conſider, that every word in this Table is drawn out into little easy ſyllabls (which is not done in any Primers, Pſalters, or other Books used by Children) and then judg which are moſt easy to be learned, This, or Thoſe.

But in what order and method ſhould Litl ones be taught this Book? Courteous Reader (ſpecially if thou art an Inſtructor of Children) be pleased to lend me thine ear, and patience.

1. As soon as your Children can truly read their Letters, cast them all into distinct Forms or Companies: The grand reason, why you hear Children so much, and yet teach them so little, is because you hear them so confusedly. Put therefore as many of them into one form, as you judg to be of an equal capacity, or at least no great difference between them.

2. Let all of one Form have but one and the same Lesson; and let the ablest among them be exercised, and employed in teaching, and preparing the weakest, before they come to say their Lesson.

3. When the whole Form comes to read their Lesson, Let it be your chief Care to make them all Attentive. To that end, charge them All to look intently on their Books; To hearken diligently to Him, that reads. To quicken their Attention, ask those, whom you observe most heedless, What is the last word?

4. Let every word in every Lesson be first distinctly spell'd, and then, and not till then, read; yea, let it be both spell'd, and read, again and again, and no new Lesson given, till they are very perfect in that.

5. When the Child reads false, let not the Master correct his error, but bid one of his fellows correct him; which he, that can, and doth, three or four times, let him be rewarded with the Place of the Offendor.

6. Let an hour every day be ſolemnly ſpent, in ſounding, and ſpelling thoſe words, which you find in the Two laſt Chapters, which (if I am not greatly miſtaken) contain moſt, if not all the difficulties are uſually met with in the whole Engliſh Tongue.

For Exampl.

1. To the loweſt, and weakeſt, that are only to tell you, what thoſe words ſound, which you are to ſpell before them: thus;

Qu. What ſounds a-n?
Anſ. ——————an.
Qu. What ſounds g-e-l?
Anſ. ——————gel.
Qu. Put it together.
Anſ. ——————angel.

2. To the Ableſt, and uppermoſt, that are to tell you, how thoſe very words are ſpeld, which have been before ſounded: Thus.

Qu. How do you ſpell Angel?
Anſ. ——————a-n an.
——————g-e-l gel
——————angel.

And ſo through both the 17, and 18 Chapters.

Reader, I have no more, but to commend Thee, our little ones, and this Book, to the bleſſing of the Moſt High, and to avow my ſelf

Thine and the Churches Servant,
Tho. Lye, Philanglus.

The Grounds of True Reading the Engliſh Tongue, laid in Verſe; under which are conch't many uſeful Moral Precepts.

THERE are in the Engliſh Tongue, or Language Twenty-ſix Letters. Theſe Letters are diſtinguiſht, according to their Figure-or-ſhape, and Sound-or-forçe.

Firſt, According to their Figure, into Capital-or-great-and-ſmâll-Letters.

1. Great, which are written with Great Figures; as A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z. Chap. 1.

2. Small, which are written with little figures, thus: a b c d e f g h i j k l m n o p q r ſ t u v w x y z. Chap. 1.

Note, That, j and v conſonants are added, as diſtinct Letters, to the other Twenty-four, becauſe they are as far different both as to ſhape, and ſound, from i, and u vowels, as any other of the Twenty-four Letters are.

Secondly, According to their ſound, into Vowels and Conſonants.

Firſt, A Vowel is a Letter, that makes a full, and perfect ſound of its ſelf. And it is either Single, or Compound.

1. A Single Vowel. There are ſix ſingl Vowels, viz. a, e, i, o, u, y. And Theſe

(1.) Change their ſound, that is, are ſometimes ſounded, Chap. 2.

1. Short: i. e. when we take ſhorter time to pronounce them; and they are noted with an half circl thus: a-ſhort, ă, e-ſhort, ĕ, i-ſhort, ĭ, o-ſhort, ŏ, u-ſhort, ŭ, y-ſhort, y.

2. Long: i. e. when we take longer time to pronounce them: and they are noted with a little line, thus: a-long ā, e-long ē, i-long ī, o-long ō, u-long ū, y-long y.

3. Long-and-broad, as a in ſome words, like au: and This is noted with a Circumflex, thus: a-long-and-broad, â âll.

(2.) Are quieſçent, that is, are not ſounded. Ch. 3.

2. A Compound-Vowel, i. e. Two or more Vowels, diverſly plaçed, or ſet together, and ſounded with one breath. Theſe are câlled Diphthongs, and Triphthongs, which, becauſe of their difficulty, are purpoſely poſtpon'd to Chap. 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16.

Firſt, A Diphthong: i. e. Two Vowels ſounded together in one breath; and Theſe are proper, or improper.

(1.) Proper, wherein both the Vowels keep their ſound. Theſe are ſeven, viz. ai, au, ay, eu, oi, ou, oy. See Chap. 11. And Theſe ſometimes

1. Change their ſound. Vid. Chap. 12, Two, viz. ai, ou.

2. Are parted into two Vowels, which are ſounded apart; Four, viz. a-i, a-u, e-u, o-i. Chap. 13.

(2.) Improper, wherein the ſound of One Vowel is loſt, or the ſound of Both Vowels changed.

1. Such, as change the ſound of One or Both Vowels, ſeventeen, viz. aa, ae, ao, ea, ee, ei, eo, ey, ie, oa, oe, oa, ue, ui, uy, ye. Chap. 14.

2. Such, as in which Both the Vowels are to be ſounded diſtinctly, and apart, Ten, viz. ae, ao, ea, ee, ei, eo, ie, oa, oe, oo. Chap. 15.

Secondly, A Triphthong, i. e. three Vowels ſounded together in one breath, Five, viz. aw, eau, ew, ieu, ow. To which are added two more, made up of four Vowels, viz. iew, owe. Chap. 16.

A Con-

Secondly, A Conſonant, which is a Letter, that ſoundeth not except it be joined with a Vowel. A Conſonant is either ſingl, doubl, or trebl.

(1.) Singl: and theſe are twenty one, viz. b, c, d, f. g, h, j, k, l, m, n, p, q, r, ſ, t, v, w, x, y, z. And theſe ſometimes

1. Change their ſound, viz. c, g, ſ, t. Chap. 4.

2. Are not ſounded, 12, viz. b, c, d, g, h, k, l, n, p, ſ, w. Chap. 5.

(2.) Doubl Conſonants, ſuch, as for the moſt part, begin ſyllabls, 41, viz. bd, bl, br, ch, cl, cn, cr, dr, dw, fl, fr, gh, gl, gr, gu, kn, mn, ph, pl, pr, pſ, pt, qu, rh, ſc, ſh, ſk, ſl, ſm, ſn, ſp, ſt, ſw, th, tr, tw, wh, wr. Chap. 6. And theſe ſometimes

1. Change their ſound, five: viz. ch, gh, qu, ſc, th. Chap. 7.

2. Are not ſounded, viz. ch, gh, th, and ce. Chap. 8.

3. Are parted, and ſounded apart, Two, viz. p-h, and ſ-h. Chap. 9.

(3.) Trebl Conſonants, which always begin ſyllabls, or are always initial, and never final, or put in the ends of words, 14, viz. chr, phl, phr, ſch, ſcr, ſhr, ſkr, ſph, ſpl, ſpr, ſqv, ſtr, thr, thw. Chap. 10.

Note, That moſt, if not All Termininations, i.e. ſuch final Letters, that do end words, or ſyllabls, from two to five Letters, are ſet down Chap. 17.

CHAP. I.

Of the Twenty-six Letters.

In the first Letter, of the first word of every Distich, you have the true sound of every Letter of the Alphabet.

fr Fr-iends are like gold; if true, they'l never leave thee:
Yet both, without a touch-ſtone, may deceiv thee.

gh like gh-ōſts are fledg ſpirits, hopt out of the ſhell.

ghee And neſts of fleſh, wherein they late did dwell.

gl Gl-ory of God, man's good, are the fixt Poles,
On which the Sphere of true Religion rowls.

gn-aſhing

gn Gn-aſhing of teeth in flames! O, who can tell,
What ſcorching, and yet freezing fire's in hell?

gr Gr-eat God, I am thy Taper, thou my Sun:
From Thee, the Spring of light, my light begun.

gu ghee Gu-ilt in the Conſcience diſſipates its evil
Through man's whole frame, and makes him his own Divel.

kn Kn-eeling ne're ſpoil'd ſilk-ſtockin: quit thy ſtate;
âll equal are within the Churches gate.

Mn Mn-aſon, that ôld diſçiples hoary head,
A Crown of glory's found, before he's dead.

ph phee Ph-ilo, with twelve years ſtudy hath been griev'd
To b' underſtood, when will he be believ'd?

pl Pl-eaſure ſtops Reaſon's ear, confounds the mind;
Unman's a man, repentance leaves behind.

pr Pr-emeditate your ſpeeches: words onçe flôwn are in the hearers power, not your own.

pſ Pſ-alms, when y' are merry, ſing, & ſweetly raise Your hearts, and voiçes in Jehovah's praise.

pt Pt-olemy reſign'd his Crown unto his ſon,
When Cyprus, and all Egypt he had won.

qu quee Qu-it crēature-comforts, fix thy ſôul above;
Where âll is graçe, and glory, light, and love.

rh like r Rh-eſus his wealth, as children rattls keep,
when plaid a while with, then they fâll aſleep.

ſc Sc-arçe are the Righteous ſav'd: If ſo, O where Shâll one day the unrighteôus appear?

ſc Sc-ylla, Charybdis, oppoſite in her Cave,
With ſharp-fang'd mouth ſucks the ſhips from the waves.

ſh ſhee Sh-ift, or ſtrike ſail, oppos'd by wind, & waves:
Too daring Pilot's he, that ſtorms out-braves.

sk Sk-ulk his old friend forgets, having got pelf:
No marvel, for he hath forgot himſelf.

Sl-eep

ſl Sl-eep captivates Life's five free ſons; for death
Nothing remains, but that thinn ſomething brĕath.

ſm Sm-âll pleaſure, ſmâller profit it affords;
To bēat the air, and grate the ear with words.

ſn Sn-ares are by Devil, World, Fleſh, laid every where,
In Shop, Field, Table, Bed. Therefore beware.

ſp Sp-are not, nor ſpend too much. Be this thy care, Spare but to ſpend, and only ſpend, to ſpare.

ſt St-irring, and active ſpirits, live alone:
Write on the others, Here lies ſuch an one.

ſw ſwee Sw-ear not. An ōath is like a dangerous dart,
Which ſhot rebounds to ſtrike the ſhooter's heart.

th thee- hard Th-ank thoſe, that do thee good. ſo ſhâlt thou gain
Their ſecond help, if thou ſhouldſt need again.

tr Tr-uth is in Wine: but who can find it there?
W'are ſure, in Taverns, men will lie & ſwear.

tw twee Tw-elve Patriarchs, XII Apoſtles, and 12 rare Pearls in Aaron's brĕaſt-plate did appear.

wh whee Wh-o ſpend too much, may want, & ſo complain:
But he ſpends beſt, that ſpares, to ſpend again.

wr Wr-etch, when thy hair is ſweet, through pride,
or luſt,
Thy powder proves, thou haſt forgot, th'art
duſt.

A Prayer before meat.

MOST gracious Father, we beſeech thee freely to pardon all our ſins, which make us unwor- of the leaſt of thy mercies; to ſanctifie theſe thy atures to our uſe, and to give us grace to ſpend their ength in thy faithful ſervice; and all through Jeſus riſt our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Thanks after Meat.

Bleſſed Lord, we praiſe thy great and glorious Name all thy full, free, and tender mercies conſtantly be- wed on us, in, and through Chriſt Jeſus; more eſpe- lly, that thou haſt ſo graciouſly refreſhed us with thy od creatures at this time: O give us graee, ſince we wholly on thy bounty, to live ſincerely to thy glory, ali through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord and Saviour. en.

A Prayer for the Morning.

MOST Holy Lord God; I thy poor, ſinful, wretch- ed Creature, deſire to give thee all praiſe for thy ious preſerving of me this night, and raiſing me up alth and ſtrength, this morning. Be pleaſed, gracious

ous Father, to bleſs me alſo with all ſpiritual bleſſings. O make me truly and deeply ſenſible of the great ſinfulneſs of my nature, heart, tongue, and life; to feel in my Conſcience, that I was born a Child of wrath, and have broken all thine holy Laws, and am therefore moſt juſtly liable to thy wrath, and curſe. Dear Father, I beſeech thee for Jeſus Chriſt his ſake, freely to pardon all my ſins, and to ſay to my ſoul, That thou art my ſalvation. Open my blind eyes, and ſoften my hard heart; enable me firmly to believe in the Lord Jeſus, and ſincerely to receive Him, and reſt upon Him as my only Lord and Saviour; and to love him with all my heart, ſoul, mind, and ſtrength, and my neighbour as my ſelf. O give me repentance unto life, whereby I may be heartily grieved for, and aſhamed of all my ſins, ſpecially thoſe, that have been deareſt to me; and to turn from them all to thee, with a full purpoſe of, and endeavour after new obedience. Aſſiſt me by thy grace, to glorifie thy Name, in all my thoughts, words, and deeds; entirely to love, reverence, obey, and ſubmit unto my Parents and Inſtructors in all things in the Lord. Do good to all thy people, eſpecially to my dear Parents; Reward them a thouſand-fold into their boſoms for all their love, care, and tenderneſs to me; bleſs my dear brethren and ſiſters. O let us all know and fear thee, from the leaſt to the greateſt of us. Bleſs the Means of my Education. This day, preſerve me from the ſins, dangers, and temptations, to which I may be expoſed, ſpecially from vanity of mind, idleneſs, pride, lying, and diſobedience. Mind me of thine All-ſeeing eye, of the day of my death, and of thy judgment, that I may prepare for them; of the dreadful torments of Hell, that I may eſcape them; and of the unſpeakable and everlaſting joys of Heaven, that I may inherit them. Guide me by thy Counſel, Bring me to thy Glory; and through Jeſus Chriſt. Amen.

A Prayer for the Evening.

MOST Gracious Father, I desire sincerely to love, and [illegible] praise thee, for thine infinite goodness to me all my days; for bestowing upon me, and continuing to me life, health, food, raiment, education, protection, especially for Jesus Christ so freely given for me, and offered to me, with all his benefits; for his holy Life, accursed Death, powerful Resurrection, and prevalent Intercession for me, and others poor sinners. Oh that all these Bands of Love, might powerfully draw my heart nearer to thee, and fix it for ever with thee. And now, O Lord, be pleased, for Jesus Christ his sake, to pardon all the sins, that I have this day, either in thought, word, or deed committed against thee, or my neighbour. Renew me in the whole man, after the Image of God. Enable me more and more to dye unto all sin, and to live unto all righteousness. Own me as thy Child, and let me be pitied, protected, instructed, and provided for by thee, as by a Father. Watch over me for good this night, and give me sleep, as thy beloved Child. Bless all thy people, that fear thy Name, specially my dear Parents, Brethren, Sisters, and Relations. Oh bless them with temporal, spiritual, and eternal blessings. Take care of me this night, and for ever, for into thy hands I commend my Spirit. All this I beg, only for Jesus Christ his sake, in whose Name I further pray, saying, Our Father which art in Heaven, hallowed be thy Name, Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive them that trespass against us: And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.
